JEWELRY

Hello Friends!

Get your shopping list ready! We are headed your way with an over-stuffed inventory perfect for fun holiday shopping. And don't forget to treat yourself to that special something you've been looking for!

For this show there are so many new necklaces, including a huge variety of short turquoise necklaces which can be worn alone or paired with a pendant, as well as plenty of earrings, rings, bracelets and more. We have kept Hopi artist Darren Seweyestewa busy creating a huge variety of his silver overlay earrings and rings in all sizes. We have lots of beautiful new Santo Domingo jewelry in shell, turquoise and all the colors of spiny oyster shell (orange, red and purple) including new, colorful earrings by Daniel Coriz. We also have new colorful bead necklaces by Alexandria Coriz. There is a magnificent 10-strand deep red coral heshe necklace with hand-made sterling silver cones. For our purple fans - Alton Bedonie made two sugilite pendants and a fabulous sugilite ring, and just in is an amazing 14kt gold and sterling silver bracelet by Vernon Haskie which features a magnificent sugilite stone. As you know, sugilite is becoming very rare and expensive so we sourced some at the Tucson Gem & Mineral show in February and gave stones to Alton to make some fabulous pieces for us. This is an excellent opportunity to add to your collection at prices you won't find elsewhere. We also obtained more wonderful rings, pendants, and earrings with much-sought-after White Buffalo.

We really went all out on restocking for this show series, including additions during our travels. The reason is that we lined up five road shows and to finish the series off we added a Facebook live show Saturday December 9th. We wanted to be sure to have a fantastic selection of jewelry for each show. Well, as luck would have it, we blew the doors off that goal!! Why? Because we now have a far larger inventory than we did when we started thanks to those additions along the way. At every show this series we have taken in two to four new collections of jewelry. We also took in some extremely sought after (museum worthy) pottery and baskets. Work has continued making ready the rest of the jewelry from four huge collections we took in over the summer as well. And yes, there are even more clip earrings for our clip earrings fans. Although not as popular today as "way back when" there are still those of you out there who seek out these hard-to-find treasures, and we are happy to find them for you.

We have definitely been burning the midnight oil this time out! To mention a few of the pieces just in – there are two 14k gold and silver Vernon Haskie bracelets, a silver Vernon Haskie bracelet with highly sought after #8 turquoise, and an early tufa cast and turquoise bracelet. There is a sugilite bracelet and an inlay lapis ring by the ultra famous Navajo artist Gibson Nez and an incredible lapis bracelet by top-level Hopi artist Phil Poseyevia. There is a beautiful Lapis Ring and Bracelet set by Navajo artist Jerry Nelson. As for necklaces – We have a fantastic large coral and handmade bead squash necklace by Ernest Roy Begay, a colorful inlay humming bird necklace by Dale Edaakie (this is a great example of his expert level work). There is an inlay bird necklace by Raymond Boyd and an unbelievable Zuni humming bird fetish necklace carved from amber by Lena Boone. We also have a double strand carved Jet and silver Lena Boone bear fetish necklace. There is a spectacular hand stamped sterling silver and Royston turquoise concho belt. It is amazing the sheer amount of vintage and highly collectible pieces added to our inventory from private collections. Honestly, more vintage, high-end pieces than we've have in a long time. There are lots of wonderful treasures to see.

Amber in a notable quantity is another recent addition to our inventory. While not Native made, we have found that Polish-made amber jewelry is a big hit and want to continue to provide that line of jewelry. We made great connections at the Tucson Gem & Mineral show and have been buying ever since. In May we went to the Las Vegas gem show and wow did we do some re-stocking! This was our first time at this event and it provided a great opportunity to acquire more amber. So many unique items in fabulous Baltic amber and sterling silver – pins, pendants, earrings and more! Usually by this time of year we are running very low so this gave us the opportunity to make sure we had plenty for this series. You will still find, however, some Native American jewelry that incorporates amber and Tamara's inventory has a bracelet with some amber as well.

For fans of Alton Bedonie's top-level work, check out his creations -two fabulously long necklaces with orange and reddish spiny oyster shell, two gorgeous sterling silver and lapis necklaces, and some ladies' turquoise rings and a new style of turquoise ring he came up with. Alton also made two beautiful bracelet and ring sets: one with Bisbee turquoise and the other with Lone Mountain turquoise. Kee Yazzie created a bracelet and pair of earrings which feature his petroglyph style design.

Tamara continued her silversmithing activities at a furious pace to add more items to her Argentium inventory. Time has been tight, but despite the challenges there are still great pieces to be had. Included in her collection are earrings and several rings, as well as a 34" chain (it can double as a belt too 😊) a heavy and intricate necklace in what she calls "ancient Rome" style and another necklace with abalone, tourmaline, rubies, 22kt gold and lab-grown rutiles (dubbed "Crown Jewels") with matching earrings. This last one is like nothing she has done before. It was originally for entry to a contest but time did not allow for making the deadline. Also added in the last couple of weeks are two rings, one of which has a beautiful Carico lake turquoise stone from Lee and Arvid Anderson's collection of stones. Work is never-ending, so stay tuned for more items in the future!

If you like pins, pendants, and rings we restocked there as well. We found quite a few all-silver bracelets by Navajo artist Tom Hawk, Leonard Nez, Albert Jake, and the Tahe family. A few have over-the-top impressive stamp work on them. We were sure to stock up on the Tahe stamped "kite" style earrings which are very popular and sell out quick, as well as the Pauline Armstrong earrings with dangles. They make such great gifts; we can't get enough! There are several new Hopi bracelets as well as Hopi earrings and pendants. We also have money clips and key rings, all of which make nice affordable gifts.

On a sad note, it was confirmed that Zuni artist Nancy Laconsello passed away (almost two years ago now), and Ruddell sustained an eye injury that left him unable to work. This award-winning team is famous for their intricate and detailed inlay work (usually of birds) in mirror-finish silver. It is truly a bitter loss for the world of Native American jewelry. We currently have some fine pieces by Ruddell and Nancy, but once they are gone any new items can only be obtained from fast-dwindling stock at trading posts as well as private collections. We have, by far, the largest collection of concho belts that we have ever had. We just added two more: a Navajo hand stamped sterling silver and Royston turquoise belt; a Zuni inlay link belt by Raymond Boyd with half dollar size conchos and a Navajo concho belt on leather with beautiful large Royston turquoise stones by Dean Sandoval.

At the end of our last show series we acquired a Calvin Begay inlay necklace and earrings set, a silver, gold, and turquoise ring by Arland Ben, a Hopi bracelet by Bradley Gashwazra, several Hopi bolo ties, and a very nice heavy turquoise bracelet made with coin silver. There was a collection of buckles which included pieces by Tom Jim and Eugene Mitchell. All we can say is "wow"! There are collector-quality pieces from some of the top Navajo, Zuni, and Hopi artists to ever make jewelry. In these collections there are also rings, earrings, pins, pendants, bracelets, bolos, and necklaces ranging in dates from the 1930's to almost present day. This is by far the largest selection of rare and vintage jewelry we have had in a very long time. You will not want to miss this show. Bring your wish list!

If there is something you are specifically looking for, please be sure to ask. This show will truly be a treat for the eyes!

In all, this is one of the largest collections we have ever had at one time. The range of spectacular jewelry is huge! It includes works by artists such as Donnie Supplee, Lee Yazzie, Vernon Haskie, Edison Cummings, Howard Nelson, Carl and Irene Clark, Ervin Haskie, Harlan and Monica Coonsis, Lavina Tsikewa, Ruddell and Nancy Laconsello, Bradley Gashwazra, Arland Ben, Calvin Begay and many more.

There's not enough room in this newsletter to describe everything, so here is a brief listing of some of the artists:

Necklaces by: Don Dewa, Ernest Begay, Jack Tom, Mary Tom, Alvin Tso, Brian Tso, Debra Gasper, Frances Moses Begay, Larry Moses Begay, Dale Edaakie, Raymond Boyd and many more.

Bolo Ties by: Michael Perry, Lionel Bahe, Michael Sockyma, Sammy and Esther Guardian, Raymond Boyd, Daniel Benally and other Navajo, Zuni, and Hopi artists. There is also a belt buckle by Phil Poseyva.

Pendants by: Bruce Hodgins, Andrew Dewa, Wilbert Manning, Kee Yazzie, Alton Bedonie, Cecil Ashley, Fadrian and Vivica Bowannie, Benny Ration and various other Navajo and Zuni artists.

Bracelets by: Phillip Sekaquaptewa, Alvin and Lula Begay, Cecil Ashley, Alvin Tso, Ronald Wadsworth and more.

Other award-winning artists' works include:

Charles Supplee, Donnie Suppee, Sherian Honhongva, Daniel Coriz, Chris Nieto, Nelson Begay, Michael Garcia, Olivia Whitethorn, Dina Huntinghorse and Duane Maktima.

If you can't make it to the show or if you remember another special someone for whom you need a holiday gift—we will have a Facebook Live sale December 9th at 3pm Arizona time, 5 pm east coast time. A major feature of our Facebook events is the opportunity to win a gift during the event, as well the grand prize (drawing after all sales conclude) which is a fabulous pendant with high grade Kingman turquoise by Alton Bedonie. In June the lucky winner was gifted a fabulous two-tier Alton Bedonie pendant with beautiful Royston turquoise. If you haven't checked us out on FB Live, the events are lots of fun and we hope you can join us in December for the next one.

Note – while not required to have a Facebook account to view the live sale, you do need one to comment or purchase during the event (a comment is how you claim/purchase an item). Shopping from photos posted after the event continues through Tuesday December 12. Paid invoices qualify for entry to the grand prize drawing. Details of the event will be posted on our Facebook page before the event. You can also see details of the event at www.americana.net (click "events").

Christmas ornaments are also available. They are a great addition to your holiday decorations and make unique, affordable gifts as well. These are sometimes hard to find, and when we do get them, they go quick. So, when Eric found more on a recent shopping trip, he snapped them up! The Navajo artists use manufactured ornaments which they decorate with a variety of sand painting styles and designs to create these charming southwest decorations. We also have beautiful Navajo sand paintings depicting Monument Valley, the Four Corners area, and still life scenes. These ornaments, sandpainting boxes and framed sand paintings all make great gifts!

As for Zuni fetish carvings, we have a great collection of about forty-five pieces, so there are lots of items from which to shop. Many of these carvings are by well-known, award-winning artists and are crafted from an assortment of stones and organic material. And remember, fetishes are not just for table-top display; be sure to check out the jewelry sections as we also have some fabulous animal and bird fetish necklaces.

We just took in several collections containing some highly sought after pieces to include: a Margaret Tafoya carved black bowl, a Margaret and Luther Gutierrez Santa Clara fetish style necklace and earrings with turtles, two Teresa Salvador polychrome flower pattern pots, a storyteller and an owl vase by Margaret Gutierrez. There are two incredible baskets that came in. One is a first/second mesa Hopi plaque with a bird pattern ca. 1970-1980 and the other is a museum quality 1910 -1920 Apache basket.

Our pottery inventory is impressive, with a large selection on hand. All our pieces are from the Southwest, ranging from hand etched, air brushed Navajo pots to natural clay that is hand coiled, stone polished and fired outdoors. A great example of these latter pots is the Mata Ortiz pieces. Many of these pieces have complex, fine-line detail artwork and are hand-coiled. Some have detailed geometric relief patterns and others have very detailed carvings. We restocked this year with a HUGE selection of these fabulous works of art.

The village of Mata Ortiz traces its origins to those of the Mogollon Culture. These early Native Americans existed at the same time as the more well-known Anasazi and the lesser-known Hohokam. All three of these cultures based their livelihoods around farming. It was the development clay vessel crafting that helped these early Native American communities to not only transport water from springs, creeks, and rivers, but allowed them to securely store their vital seed supplies between each harvest and the next planting season.

With time, these simple, utilitarian vessels became more ornate and decorative. Nowadays some of the finest, most detailed pots are from this region. The price for this quality of work is incredible! In Navajo and Jemez pottery, we have a nice selection of new Navajo hand etched pots and some wonderful hand-made Jemez Pueblo spiral melon pieces. There are also a couple of wonderful storyteller pots from the Lucero family on Jemez.

Our impressive kachina collection continues to dazzle with an inventory that includes work from award winning artists such as Laurence Dallas, Keith Torres, Raymond Chee, Marlin Pinto, and Sterling McRae.

There will be something in everyone's price range, so be sure to stop by and see us!

See you there!
