Hello Friends!

Before we get on to the treasures coming your way, it needs to be announced that our FAIRFAX, VA show will be held the WEEKEND BEFORE Thanksgiving this year and going forward. We think it is just fabulous that so many of you are busy spending time with family and friends on Thanksgiving weekend, and hope this adjustment will give you the opportunity to visit with us before the busy holiday travel and general madness begins. And by "madness" we mean that in a good way! Who doesn't love a great Thanksgiving meal with family and friends around the table 😊?

And now...countdown time is here! The holidays are upon us which means it is now time to look forward to the holiday season shopping. My, how fast it comes around! Our upcoming shows in Maryland and Virginia are the perfect opportunity to get some gift shopping done (and add to your own amazing collection 😊). From super affordable to high-end collector items, we have it all!

Speaking of collector items, remember how we have said we took in some amazing collections? Well, the items kept on coming and this time we really out-did it! You will not want to miss this show series. This collection contains an amazing selection of jewelry from two wonderful ladies who had impeccable tastes and a need for large necklaces with all kinds of matching earrings, rings, and bracelets. We also took in more large turquoise rings and bracelets from another collection which contained what we thought (at the time) was roughly 100 or so items. We were way under with that estimate! There is enough jewelry to fill our cases twice over so needless to say these collections will take some time to inventory and make ready for sale. The selection of fantastic jewelry from these collections should continue to fill our cases through next summer and beyond. There are necklaces from Santo Domingo artist such as Lupe Lovato, Delbert Crespin, Charlene Reano and Chris Nieto. There are Navajo necklaces as well as earrings rings and bracelets by artists Mary Tom, Bruce Hodgins, Peterson Johnson, Alex Sanchez, La Rose Ganadanegro, Garrison Boyd, Darryl Becenti, Etta Endito, Andy Cadman, and Frances Moses Begay. If you are searching for something specific, do be sure to ask because maybe we'll have it and it's just not out for sale yet.

Other collections brought in some more amazing jewelry, including pieces with 14kt gold and sugilite by Brian Clark and a short two strand sugilite and gold necklace. The collection also contains a 14 kt gold and fire agate pendant and a turquoise and inlay fossilized ivory reversible pendant by Boyd Tsosie. There is a fantastic handmade three-strand natural turquoise necklace by Ray Lovato. This is a major piece from one of the greats in the Santo Domingo art world. You will not want to miss seeing this necklace!

We also took in a beautiful 29 stone necklace with a mix of Royston and old Duval Kingman turquoise as well as a high-grade Skyhorse turquoise and handmade bead squash blossom style necklace, a handmade all-silver squash blossom necklace from the 1970's, and many other very collectible pieces as well. Another recent collection contains a very large number of ladies watch bands as well, so if you have been looking for a watch band to complete (or complement) your set, this is the perfect time to take advantage of this rare opportunity.

You will see a large new selection of amber and sterling silver jewelry from Poland. Some folks have asked why, if we sell Native American jewelry, do we carry jewelry from Poland? Simply put, it is fun to share something so unusual! We just love the whimsy of some of these lovely and unique amber pieces! And after all, jewelry in all its' forms by all different makers and cultures is art, and we love art ❤️. There are earrings, pendants, rings, and a whole bunch of the wrap around and stretch style bracelets as well.

Alton Bedonie created another fantastic necklace with lapis and orange, red and purple spiny oyster shell. He also created some very elaborate and heavy rings in purple and orange spiny oyster shell and made a beautiful sugilite ring. He made eight pair of his long dangle earrings and three beautiful double drop purple spiny oyster shell pendants. Kee Yazzie has also been busy. He made us four bracelets, two pendants and five pairs of earrings.

Tamara's Argentium jewelry is selling fast these days, so she has been busy in her shop building as much as she can to restock her inventory. For this show, there are fun mixed-metal spinner rings, a fabulous long toggle/chain necklace with mandarin garnet, long dangle earrings on posts, French wire hoops and circles earrings, and a pair of unique, super-sleek architecture inspired earrings. And one more: a surprisingly quirky and fun ring accented with bronze and Moissanite, and set with a large lodolite (garden quartz). Had it fit her, this baby would be staying home! Time has been tight, but despite the challenges she managed to finish some great pieces, including two chains. Currently in process are two more chains that hopefully will be ready for this show. Work is never-ending, so stay tuned for more items in the future!

We have restocked our earrings, rings, pendants just in time for the holidays. There are new pieces with turquoise, spiny oyster shell, onyx, man mad opal, apple coral, as well as the colorful dyed Kingman turquoise. There is a new selection of the cuff, link and bangle bracelets including about 35 of the colorful heshe bracelets by Santo Domingo artist Dorren Calabaza. We also have a great new selection of the smaller turquoise nugget necklaces. There are several new Hopi bracelets as well as Hopi earrings and pendants from our friend Darren Seweyestewa. We also have money clips and key rings, all of which make nice affordable gifts.

We have, by far, the largest collection of concho belts that we have ever had. Almost (and even more) at the pace we sell them we continue to add more from private collections, so the selection is fabulous and remains an impressive collection.

If there is something you are specifically looking for, please be sure to ask because the overview above barely scratches the surface. This show will truly be a treat for the eyes!

In all, this is one of the largest collections we have ever had at one time. The range of spectacular jewelry is huge! It includes works by artists such as Donnie Supplee, Lee Yazzie, Vernon Haskie, Edison Cummings, Howard Nelson, Carl and Irene Clark, Ervin Haskie, Harlan and Monica Coonsis, Lavina Tsikewa, Ruddell and Nancy Laconsello, Bradley Gashwazra, Arland Ben, Calvin Begay and many more.

There's not enough room in this newsletter to describe everything, so here is a brief listing of some of the artists, most of whom are award-winners:

Don Dewa, Jack Tom, Mary Tom, Alvin Tso, Brian Tso, Larry Moses Begay, Dale Edaakie, Michael Sockyma, Frank Vacit, Sammy and Esther Guardian, Raymond Boyd, Phil Poseyesva, Bruce Hodgins, Andrew Dewa, Wilbert Manning, Kee Yazzie, Alton Bedonie, Cecil Ashley, Fadrian and Vivica Bowannie, Benny Ration, Alvin and Lula Begay, Ronald Wadsworth and more.

If you can't make it to the show or if you remember another special someone for whom you need a gift, keep in mind that we now conduct two Facebook Live sales per year. Our next Facebook Live show is Saturday December 14th, 2024. A major feature of our Facebook events is the opportunity to win a gift during the event, as well the grand prize (drawing after all sales conclude) which is either a fabulous pendant by Alton Bedonie or a heavy chain by Tamara. In June the lucky winner was gifted a fabulous two-tier Alton Bedonie pendant with beautiful Dry Creek turquoise. If you haven't checked us out on FB Live, the events are lots of fun and we hope you can join us for the next one (December). Note – while not required to have a Facebook account to view the live sale, you do need one to comment or purchase during the event (a comment is how you claim/purchase an item). Paid invoices qualify for entry to the grand prize drawing. Details of Facebook sale events will be posted on our Facebook page.

CARVINGS, POTTERY, RUGS, SANDPAINTINGS AND MORE

We restocked our Navajo sand painting boxes and small, framed sand painting selection. The designs are gorgeous! The smaller sand paintings restock include the style with framing and matting that has a reproduction arrow head. Sandpainting boxes and framed sand paintings all make great gifts.

Recently we have taken in a good amount of older Puebloan pots. A few of these pieces are 30-to-40- year-old Hopi pieces, to include a short Joy Navasie polychrome vase. From the same collection is a carved black slip Santa Claran Margaret Tafoya bowl. There is still a huge inventory of Mata Ortiz pottery from our visit to the Tucson gem & mineral shows earlier in the year. In fact, we were sure to purchase enough to last the entire year! These pots are all hand-made and range in size from just a couple of inches tall on up to over fourteen. The prices are based upon size, quality, complexity, and recognition of the artist. Overall, our pottery inventory is impressive! All our pieces are from the Southwest, ranging from hand etched, air brushed Navajo pots to natural clay that is hand coiled, stone polished and fired outdoors. A great example of these latter pots is the Mata Ortiz pieces. Many of these pieces have complex, fine-line detail artwork and are hand-coiled. Some have detailed geometric relief patterns and others have very detailed carvings. These new pots will add to the excellent selection of older Navajo wedding baskets that were brought in over the holidays.

As for Zuni fetish carvings, we have a large collection, so there are lots of items from which to shop. Many of these carvings are by well-known, award-winning artists and are crafted from an assortment of stones and organic material. And remember, fetishes are not just for table-top display; be sure to check out the jewelry sections as we also have some fabulous animal and bird fetish necklaces.

We just took in several collections containing some highly sought after pieces to include: a Margaret and Luther Gutierrez Santa Clara fetish style necklace and earrings with turtles, two Teresa Salvador polychrome flower pattern pots, a story teller and an owl vase by Margaret Gutierrez, and an incredible museum quality 1910 -1920 Apache basket.

Our already great kachina collection just became more impressive with the addition of seven beautiful kachina carvings by Hopi artist Keith Torres. Keith is a member of the Hopi Fire clan and regularly dances during the ceremonies in his village. These new pieces are in the sculpture style with nice detail work and are priced very affordably. Other kachina carvings include pieces by award winning artists such as Laurence Dallas, Raymond Chee, Marlin Pinto, and Sterling McRae.

There will be something in everyone's price range, so be sure to stop by and see us!

See you there!

Did you know? Have you ever wondered how storyteller pottery figures came about? The Puebloan storyteller figure began when, in the 1950s, Helen Cordero, a Cochiti potter crafted a clay figure in honor of her grandfather. The male figure had two children sitting upon it, and was dubbed "the storyteller". Shortly afterward, Helen created a seated female figure with children. The female figure was named "singing mother". As time passed the name "storyteller" came to be used to describe either a male or female figure. Today storytellers are crafted in several of the pueblos, and some are even in the shape of animals.
