JEWELRY

Hello Friends!

We hope your summer has been fabulous so far! We will be headed your way very soon with a fully stocked inventory for shopping fun and are looking forward to seeing you in Highlands Ranch!

There are new earrings, necklaces, rings, pendants, and bracelets with all the vibrant colors of the southwest from Navajo, Hopi, Zuni and Santo Domingo artists and more. We have lots of turquoise neckwear (both short and long) in Kingman, Skyhorse, Campitos, Sleeping Beauty, Royston, Nacozari, and more in a wide variety of colors. From super affordable to high-end collector items, we have it all!

We have been busy making ready a great selection of both new and vintage jewelry for this Denver area show. In short necklaces, we added more in Kingman, Sleeping Beauty, Skyhorse, Campitos and Nacozari turquoise which are finished with sterling silver clasps and range in price from $55 - $110 (very affordable!) as well as some incredible collector pieces from large vintage collections and fun additions to our amber jewelry.

Speaking of collector items, we took in some amazing collections and this time we really outdid ourselves! These collections contain an amazing selection of jewelry from two wonderful ladies who had impeccable tastes and a need for large necklaces with all kinds of matching earrings, rings, and bracelets. We also took in more large turquoise rings and bracelets from another collection which contained what we thought (at the time) was roughly 100 or so items. We were way under with that estimate - there is enough jewelry to keep us well-stocked for some time! And, on top of that, we just took in another big collection from a lovely lady who also had an appreciation for larger neckwear. Including one of the most ornate turquoise and sterling silver squash blossom necklaces we have ever had. Needless to say - we will continue to burn the midnight oil to get this glorious collection of 15-20 pieces (as well as previous collections) ready for you to shop. Please note, our cases will be very full, so please take your time to enjoy this treasure hunt so as not to miss anything. There are necklaces from Santo Domingo artists such as Lupe Lovato, Ray Lovato, Delbert Crespin, Charlene Reano and Chris Nieto and a beautiful sterling silver and lapis necklace by famous Hopi artist Phil Poseyesva. Also available are Navajo necklaces as well as earrings, rings, and bracelets by artists Tommy Jackson, Mary Tom, Bruce Hodgins, Peterson Johnson, Jack Tom, Alex Sanchez, La Rose Ganadanegro, Garrison Boyd, Darryl Becenti, Etta Endito, Andy Cadman, and Frances Moses Begay. If you are searching for something specific, do be sure to ask because we might have it (or something similar) and it is just not out for sale yet.

We also took in a high-grade Skyhorse turquoise and handmade bead squash blossom necklace, and two squash blossom necklaces from the 1980's by Herman Coan, one all-silver and one with turquoise, both with hand-made beads. These are well-made vintage heavy necklaces that are highly collectible and will make a treasured family heirloom for generations to come.

Another recent collection contains a very large number of ladies watch bands as well, so if you have been looking for a watch band to complete (or complement) your set, this is the perfect time to take advantage of this rare opportunity.

Thanks to our spring buying trips, you will see a large new selection of amber and sterling silver jewelry from Poland & Lithuania. Some folks have asked why, if we sell Native American jewelry, do we carry jewelry from Poland? Simply put, it is fun to share something so unusual (hint: octopi, bees and murder hornets anyone?! We just love the whimsy of some of these lovely and unique amber pieces! And after all, jewelry in all its' forms by all different makers and cultures is art, and we love art ❤️. There are earrings, pendants, rings, and a whole bunch of the wrap around and stretch style bracelets as well, and the cutest little things like hedgehogs, spiders, butterflies and more. Additionally, have a fun selection of stone bead stretch bracelets in a variety of colors and types, including amethyst, amazonite, malachite, tourmaline, dyed jade (lavender), quartz and more. They are comfortable and easy-breezy for summer wear, and make great, affordable gifts as well.

Alton Bedonie continued making beautiful pieces for us. Some brand-new items include a Blue Moon turquoise necklace and earring set, and another necklace and earring set with Green Valley Variscite. Both varieties of beautiful turquoise and variscite were purchased directly from the Otteson brothers in Tucson. These gorgeous stones came from their mines in Nevada (Blue Moon turquoise) and Arizona (Green Valley variscite). We have four pairs of his turquoise dangle earrings (and two shorter pairs with coral), two beautiful double-drop purple spiny oyster shell pendants, one double-drop Golden Hills turquoise pendant and one Green Valley variscite double-drop pendant. Other items include beautiful new rings, including one with a stunning piece of Green Valley variscite. Kee Yazzie has also been busy. He made us three bracelets, one pendant and three pairs of earrings as well as a beautiful turquoise and sterling silver buckle.

Tamara's Argentium jewelry continues to be a hit, so she has been busy in her shop building as much as she can to restock her inventory. For this show she is showcasing a fabulous three-piece dangle pendant featuring a lovely piece of gem silica and Ethiopian opals, several fabulous chains, a pair of unique, super-sleek architecture inspired earrings, three pairs of hoop style earrings (one pair with high-grade sugilite) and a new ring with a lovely piece of fire agate. Time is always an issue, but despite the challenges she managed to finish some great pieces. Work is never-ending, so stay tuned for more items in the future!

There is a new selection of cuff, link, and bangle bracelets including a huge selection of the colorful heishi bracelets and chokers by Santo Domingo artist Doreen Calabaza. We also have a great new selection of the smaller turquoise nugget necklaces, money clips, key rings, plus a brand-new collection of colorful dreamcatchers, all of which make nice affordable gifts.

From our friend Darren Seweyestewa we obtained some gorgeous new rings, earrings, and bracelets. Hopi artists use traditional designs from the Sikyatki ruins, which are dated to 1200 a.d. on land in Northern Arizona near the Hopi area. These designs were uncovered during an archeological expedition to Northern Arizona in 1895 by Dr. Jesse Walter Fewkes. Dr. Fewkes had enlisted the help of a Hopi woman to record the designs found on the pottery shards found on this site. This lady, whose name was Nampeyo, began using these designs on her pottery which we now recognize today as traditional Hopi designs. You will find these designs in Darren's work, as well as in work by Hopi artists today, be they potters, jewelers, or painters.

We have, by far, the largest collection of concho belts that we have ever had. Almost (and even more) at the pace we sell them we continue to add more from private collections, so the selection is fabulous and remains an impressive collection.

In all, this is one of the largest collections we have ever had at one time. The range of spectacular jewelry is huge! It includes works by artists such as Donnie Supplee, Lee Yazzie, Vernon Haskie, Edison Cummings, Howard Nelson, Carl and Irene Clark, Ervin Haskie, Harlan and Monica Coonsis, Lavina Tsikewa, Ruddell and Nancy Laconsello, Bradley Gashwazra, Arland Ben, Calvin Begay, Don Dewa, Jack Tom, Mary Tom, Alvin Tso, Brian Tso, Larry Moses Begay, Dale Edaakie, Michael Sockyma, Frank Vacit, Sammy and Esther Guardian, Raymond Boyd, Phil Poseyesva, Bruce Hodgins, Andrew Dewa, Wilbert Manning, Kee Yazzie, Alton Bedonie, Cecil Ashley, Fadrian and Vivica Bowannie, Benny Ration, Alvin and Lula Begay, Ronald Wadsworth and more.

If you can't make it to the show or if you remember another special someone for whom you need a gift, keep in mind that we now conduct two Facebook Live sales per year. Our next Facebook Live show is planned for July 26. A major feature of our Facebook events is the opportunity to win a gift during the event, as well the grand prize (drawing after all sales conclude) which is either a fabulous pendant by Alton Bedonie or a heavy chain by Tamara. Last December the lucky winner was gifted a fabulous raised platform Alton Bedonie pendant with beautiful Kingman turquoise. If you haven't checked us out on FB Live, the events are lots of fun and we hope you can join us for the next one. Note – while not required to have a Facebook account to view the live sale, you do need one to comment or purchase during the event (a comment is how you claim/purchase an item). Paid invoices qualify for entry to the grand prize drawing. Details of Facebook sale events will be posted on our Facebook page.

CARVINGS, POTTERY, RUGS, SANDPAINTINGS AND MORE

We restocked our Navajo sand painting boxes and small, framed sand painting selection. The designs are gorgeous! The smaller sand paintings restock include the style with framing and matting that has a reproduction arrow head. Sandpainting boxes and framed sand paintings all make great gifts.

Recently we have taken in a good amount of older Puebloan pots. A few of these pieces are 30-to-40- year-old Hopi pieces, to include a short Joy Navasie polychrome vase. Eric and Matt spent a day in Tucson at the Gem & Mineral shows in February and purchased over seventy pieces of Mata Ortiz pottery. As a result, we will have an excellent variety of styles and sizes available. These pots are all hand-made and range in size from just a couple of inches tall on up to over fourteen. The prices are based upon size, quality, complexity, and recognition of the artist. If you are looking for storyteller figures, we have a nice selection from the Jemez pueblo available*. Overall, our pottery inventory is impressive!

All our pieces are from the Southwest, ranging from hand etched, air brushed Navajo pots to natural clay that is hand coiled, stone polished and fired outdoors. A great example of these latter pots is the Mata Ortiz pieces. Many of these pieces have complex, fine-line detail artwork and are hand-coiled. Some have detailed geometric relief patterns and others have very detailed carvings. These new pots will add to the excellent selection of older Navajo wedding baskets that were brought in over the holidays.

As for Zuni fetish carvings, we have a large collection, so there are lots of items from which to shop. Many of these carvings are by well-known, award-winning artists and are crafted from an assortment of stones and organic material. And remember, fetishes are not just for table-top display; be sure to check out the jewelry sections as we also have some fabulous animal and bird fetish necklaces.

We just took in several collections containing some highly sought after pieces to include: a Margaret and Luther Gutierrez Santa Clara fetish style necklace and earrings with turtles, one Teresa Salvador polychrome flower pattern pots, and an incredible museum quality 1910 -1920 Apache basket.

Our already great kachina collection includes two beautiful kachina carvings by Hopi artist Keith Torres. Keith is a member of the Hopi Fire clan and regularly dances during the ceremonies in his village. These new pieces are in the sculpture style with nice detail work and are priced very affordably. A more unusual piece is a Comanche warrior kachina by Hopi artist Bryan Kewenvouma. Other kachina carvings include pieces by award winning artists such as Laurence Dallas, Raymond Chee, Sterling McRae and more.

There will be something in everyone's price range, so be sure to stop by and see us!

See you there!

Did you know? Have you ever wondered how storyteller pottery figures came about? The Puebloan storyteller figure began when, in the 1950s, Helen Cordero, a Cochiti potter crafted a clay figure in honor of her grandfather. The male figure had two children sitting upon it, and was dubbed "the storyteller." Shortly afterward, Helen created a seated female figure with children. The female figure was named "singing mother." As time passed the name "storyteller" came to be used to describe either a male or female figure. Today storytellers are crafted in several of the pueblos, and some are even in the shape of animals.*
